State Old Hedge Plants

To supply the demand of nurserymen and others, who plant more or less of this article, as well as to get what we want for our own use, we have an agent stationed in Texas, who gets out and ships to us annually, several thousand bushels. This year it is our intention to get out a larger amount than ever before. This will be offered to the public at the lowest market rates. Parties intending to plant next season, and wishing our price list, will please send their address. Our long experience in the work enables us to guarantee the best of seed.
